Abstarct:

Pumped Pepe (Ticker PPEPE) is steroid-based version of original Pepe. Pepe has already shown us how a simple meme powered only by vibes and community can conquer the entire memecoin market. Now it's time for a new, stronger version to hit the market. Zero limits. Just clear pump!!!

The mission

Pumped Pepe is absolutely disgusted by the massive dumps polluting the crypto space. The true King of Memes has arrived to solo carry the entire market into a new golden age. We aren't here to take part, we are here to take over. The crypto world will never be the same again!

Staking

What's staking?

Staking is the ultimate cheat code for building generational wealth and stacking that sweet, sweet passive income. We are here for the Lambos and pure glory. You lock your $PPEPE tokens in our custom-built, battle tested smart contract for a set period (minimum 14 days). Don't sweat it: Your bags are safe. The $PPEPE team has stress-tested this contract to the absolute limit. It's engineered to run flawlessly and PUMP fresh, juicy $PPEPE rewards directly into your wallet. Get in, lock up, and watch your stack grow.

Risk disclaimers:

- Cryptocurrency markets are highly volatile. You may lose part or all of your funds. Only use funds you can afford to lose.
- Staking $PPEPE does not represent an investment contract, security, or financial product. Rewards are not guaranteed and may change, decrease, or stop entirely at any time.
- Smart contracts, while tested, may contain unforeseen bugs or vulnerabilities. By interacting with the $PPEPE you acknowledge and accept all associated risks.
- $PPEPE is a meme token created for lolz. It has no intrinsic value, no guaranteed utility, and no promise of financial returns. Participation is speculative and at your own risk.
- Nothing related to $PPEPE constitutes financial advice. Do your own research (DYOR).
- Memes are forever. Profits are not.
- $PPEPE is not equity, not shares, not ownership, and not a claim on anything — it's just a meme.
